Queensland Government
Department of Primary Industries and Fisheries

Queensland
Stock Act 1915 (S.22)

Waybill

A 1

Severe penalties apply for knowingly entering false or misleading information on a waybill or when stock are removed illegally from the cattle tick infected area.

If the intended journey involves moving stock from the cattle tick infected area, you will require a permit from a biosecurity inspector as well as this waybill. The stock may also require inspection and/or treatment for cattle tick. Contact the nearest biosecurity inspector.

1. Full name and postal address of the actual owner of stock being travelled

2. Full address of holding, saleyard or place of origin of the stock

☐ Infected ☐ Free
☐ Controlled ☐ Special Purpose

3. Registered property number of property of origin of the stock

4. Full address of destination of the stock

Put "and return" if applicable

5. Name of person or company taking delivery of the stock

6. Name of person in charge of the stock being travelled

7. Date movement commenced / /

8. Particulars of stock (Full and accurate details of the stock must be supplied below)

No. of stock	Breed	Description/sex	Registered brand	Cattle earmark or sheep & goat earmark

9. I, Name (please print)

Telephone number

(Tick applicable box)

am the ☐ Actual owner of the stock ☐ Occupier of the holding of origin of the stock ☐ Authorised agent of the owner

Signature / /

Permit issue

This section is to be completed only when a travel permit has been issued for the movement